Water You Waiting for?

New Well Brings Clean Water to Ringgold

While we can't make your New Year's resolutions include drinking more water, we can provide a cleaner and safer water source. Thanks to a 3.7 million dollar conservation loan from the DWSRF, the City of Ringgold will be able to construct a new well, rehabilitate our current water distribution system, and install a SCADA system. The new well, located at the corner of Poplar Springs Rd. and North Crestview Dr., will be a cleaner, more sustainable drinking water source than South Chickamauga Creek and is less likely to be affected by contaminants found in stormwater runoff. It will also more than double the City's current water capacity. Recently, the City Council awarded the contract for the project to Talley Construction, bringing Ringgold one step closer to cleaner and safer water.

New Year, New Recreation

Phase 2 of Construction Begins at Creekside

On any given day, you can drive by Creekside Park and see dozens of people walking, playing pickleball, or enjoying a basketball game. These activities were made possible by the additions included in Phase One of the Ringgold Recreation Project. This month, the project is moving into Phase Two! This phase includes sidewalks, pavilions, an outdoor stage, five new soccer fields, and additional paved parking. Construction on Phase Two is estimated to take six months to complete. We are thrilled to offer these new recreation opportunities to our community and cannot wait to welcome you to the new and improved Creekside Park.
